Social network cookies and on our blog

In our portal we provide links to the pages that are on social networks (Facebook, Twitter, Vimeo, YouTube, Instagram, Linkedin) and to our Blog. For the operation of these sites, if you access them, cookies from the Maxillofacial Institute and third parties are also installed (Facebook.com, Instagram.com, Twitter.com, Vimeo.com, Youtube.com (Google), Linkedin.com)

These cookies are of two types:

- Technical cookies necessary to access information and videos that we share on social networks and on our blog.

- Analytical cookies (for example, Google Abalytics), since most social networks, as well as in our blog analytical tools are used to collect information on how users use our portal, the blog, and social networks.
